

AI Assistant Cheat Sheet

Think of AI as a helpful, polite assistant. Just speak to it in plain English!

1. Creating Pictures (Images)

Goal: Get a specific image for a project or slide.

Prompt: "Create a [Style: photo/cartoon] of [Subject: a cat drinking tea] in a [Setting: a cozy kitchen]. Make the colors [Color: bright/warm/soft]."

2. Planning a Talk (Presentations)

Goal: Stop staring at a blank page and get an outline.

Prompt: "I need to give a [Time: 5-minute] presentation about [Topic: Healthy Eating]. Give me an outline for 4 slides, including a title for each slide and 3 simple bullet points."

3. Finding Information (Data)

Goal: Get facts and figures put into a neat list.

Prompt: "Find 5 facts about [Topic: The History of Salt]. Put the information into a table with two columns: 'The Fact' and 'Why it Matters'."

4. Writing & Polishing (Emails)

Goal: Write a professional message quickly.

Prompt: "Write a [Tone: friendly/formal] email to [Who: my boss/a neighbor] about [Topic: rescheduling our meeting]. Keep it short and polite."

5. Fixing Tech Problems (Support)

Goal: Get step-by-step help without the jargon.

Prompt: "I am using a [Device: Windows laptop/iPhone]. I can't find how to [Problem: change my desktop background]. Give me 3 simple steps to fix this."

3 Golden Rules for Better Results

1. Be Specific: Instead of 'Write a story,' try 'Write a 2-paragraph story about a brave turtle.'

AI Assistant Cheat Sheet

2. Ask for Changes: If it is too long, say 'Make it shorter.' If it is too complicated, say 'Explain it like I am 10 years old.'
3. Check the Work: AI is smart, but it can make mistakes! Always double-check names, dates, and facts.